

RESONANCES CONFERENCE

17 May 2017

Programme

9:00am Registration, meet conference delegates, tea and coffee

9:25am Conference welcome (Andy Bradshaw)

Session one: Quality in qualitative research

Chair: Andy Bradshaw

9:30am Showing your working in qualitative research (keynote)

Dr Ibrar Bhatt (Queen's University Belfast)

10:15am Tea and coffee break

10:35am Presentation block one

Chair: Kelli Zezulka

1. "If only you'd got 15 interviews" (standard presentation)

Sophie Rutter (Information School, University of Sheffield)

2. Hard-to-reach groups and non-probability sampling: how to ensure quality of data and to measure quality of data (standard presentation)

Peter Traynor (School of Law, University of Leeds)

3. Judging the quality of qualitative research: A relativist perspective (standard presentation)

Andy Bradshaw (School of Sports and Exercise Sciences, University of Leeds)

11:35am Networking activity: "Share Your Research in Different Stories"

12:00pm Lunch

Session two: Reflexivity in qualitative research

Chair: Andy Bradshaw

1:00pm Reflexivity in qualitative research (keynote)

Dr Emmanuella Plakoyiannki, University of Leeds

1:45pm Presentation block two

Chair: Samyia Ambreen

1. The journey of thematic analysis: On acknowledging the self and making a research diary visible (standard presentation)

Bethany Robertson (School of Sociology, University of York)

2. Researching ESOL (English for speakers of other languages) learners: A reflexive account (standard presentation)

Jessica Elmore (Information School, University of Sheffield)

3. Understanding international public policy transfer: sampling strategy and language dilemmas (short presentation)

Jaroslava Tomanova (School of Performance and Cultural Industries and School of Media and Communication, University of Leeds)

4. Operationalisation of abstract concepts in qualitative research for data collection and data representation (short presentation)

Christina Straub (Centre for Criminal Justice Studies, School of Law, University of Leeds)

2:45pm Tea and coffee break

3:00pm Buzz group discussion: “Quality and Reflexivity in Qualitative Research”

4:00pm Drinks reception

5:00pm Close